On top of that the 9th Edition missions are heavily favored toward to taking and holding objectives. Currently this can be an issue for Grey Knights. They are an expensive army (and not always super durable) and getting enough troops to hold down objectives can be hard for them. Both of these changes really hurt them.

Warhammer 40K: Five Armies Made Worse by 9th Edition ...

Let ' s talk about why 9th Edition is looking to favor MSU armies. Different editions of Warhammer 40,000 have favored different types of army list builds. Some favor heavy armor, others horde forces, some balanced lists and a few MSU (many or multiple small units). 8th on the whole tended to favor horde armies and bigger units, allowing players to get more bang for their buck when using stratagems and combos. 9th, based on the info released so far, looks to be a hard swing in the other ...
