Blackbird Fly is the 2015 debut, multicultural children's novel by Filipina-American author Erin Entrada Kelly. Set in present-day Louisiana, the story follows Analyn "Apple" Yengko, a twelve-year-old Asian-American girl struggling to fit in and make friends in her new environment. When Apple is teased and bullied in school for looking and acting different, she turns to music as her main release.

In BLACKBIRD FLY, debut novelist Erin Entrada Kelly creates a warts-and-all-likable heroine whom everyone can relate to. She brings a universality to Apple's unique circumstances by letting the reader inside Apple's head and heart to understand the isolation she feels at school from being different and the frustration she feels at home for not being understood and supported by her mother.
