Child of the Dark, the diary of Carolina Maria de Jesus, covers the period between July 1955 and January 1, 1960, with a gap, due to editing, between 1955 and 1958. Carolina has three children: Vera (two), José Carlos (five), and João (eight). They live in a favela, or shantytown, where living spaces consist of crude huts built of cardboard and wood scraps.

Child of the Dark: Plot Overview | SparkNotes

Last semester, I took a class in Latin American history and we were assigned to read De Jesus's Child of the Dark. This was the most fascinating book I've read, in a long time. I'm not an avid reader but this is one book that I truly had the pleasure of reading. As I began reading it, I found myself unable to put the book down.
