Confessions of a Slacker Mom
Slacker moms say "No" to parenting philosophies that undermine parents'-and children's-ability to think for themselves. They say "Yes" to saving their money and time by opting out of the parenting competition. And they say "Hell, Yes!" to having a life of their own, knowing it makes them better parents.In this witty and insightful book, author ...

STEPHANIE (slacker mom) I'm a Stay at Home Mom of two boys. I definitely don't use my daily allotment of 30,000 words, so I decided to start blogging as an attempt at maintaining my sanity and to keep my husband's ears from falling off from me talking so much. I'm not "naturally" funny, but I have been known to catch a few laughs on occasion.

Mead-Ferro charmed readers with her Confessions of a Slacker Mom last year, and she's just as terrific in this follow-up as she dispenses comforting advice while still being one of the girls. She adroitly addresses many of the issues confronting modern wives today, from the "thankless if not completely invisible chores... on my list simply because I am the wife," to the covers of certain women's magazines at the checkout line, which "make forty-four-year-old women like myself want to hang ...
