This section on cults and isms serves as a heads-up when it comes to theological cults. A theological cult is a counterfeit, a parasite, an anomaly whose main host is Christianity. Taking basic beliefs, words, and doctrines from Christianity and then reshaping them into what the cult is, is what theological cultism is all about, with some cults being better at their counterfeiting craft than others.

Cults and Isms also examines the claims and beliefs of Islam, which now numbers more adherents than Catholicism. The authors tests the claims of Mohammed and his followers against what the Bible says. Do we pray "to the same god," as we are told by politicians and churchmen? The answers are inside, in the book's second "Table of Truth."
