Curfew and its characters will stay with me for some time and I can't think of a better thing to be able to say about a book. ... Phil Rickman, as ever, really gets across the feel of the gray and chilly border country. The narration is spot on, Sean Barrett was born to read Rickmans novels and he does the characters perfectly.

He is one of my favourite narrators and in Curfew, surpasses himself with his excellent portrayal of a range of characters. The supernatural element gives food for thought but Rickman's analysis of a community that has not embraced the 21st Century will keep me thinking about how people react emotionally and intellectually in such a situation.

Curfew (Audiobook) by Phil Rickman | Audible.in

Curfew and Sean Barrett This was my first Phil Rickman Novel and this is my first ever review. This was a definite slow builder, gradually and tantalizingly sucking me into the wonderfully creepy world of Crybbe and its inhabitants.
