Cheree Alsop – Thoughts and writings

Talk Supe is doing a review/giveaway of both Galdoni and Shadows. Here is the review for Galdoni: I wasn't born. I was created in some test tube by sterile, cold-hearted lab technicians determined to make the perfect gladiator for money-hungry politicians.

Galdoni Review from Talk Supe – Cheree Alsop

Kale, a Galdoni who is rescued by three high school students and nursed back from the brink of death, is given the chance to experience life as a human. When he is recaptured and returned to the Arena, he must use what he learned in the world outside the Academy in order to free the other Galdoni and return to the human girl he loves.

The Galdoni Series – Cheree Alsop

Cheree Alsop does a good job making him a real character with internal struggles even as he hopes desperately to be allowed a small bit of freedom. He makes friends with the three human children he lives with, and they bring him a measure of self-confidence he never had before.

Cheree Alsop grew up on a farm in Utah where she spent morning and night working with animals. Her step-father is a beekeeper as well as a farmer, and so her schooling in the art of honey gathering, animal care, and tending to crops has been tempered by a strong work ethic and an appreciation of hard work and patience.
