Draw a grid on a piece of paper—a square filled with smaller squares. The number of squares can vary, depending on the attention span of your child. Down the left side, put some letters of the alphabet (for example, you could spell out a child's name: LISA). Across the top, write categories—for example, girls' names, boys' names, animals, colours, cars, places.

An automatic online paper grader will NEVER: Assess whether the paper meets the assignment requirements. The most advanced AI can't make sense of your professor's directions, so it won't be able to tell whether you did a good job. And you can forget about meaningful comments on how to make things better.
