Here, There, Elsewhere is another excellent example of Least Heat Moon's writing—he writes in long sentences often filled with lists and rambling ideas. It is not a single compelling story which can make the verbose lists and long sentences seem slightly tedious, however, as one settles into the cadence of his words, they seem to roll along ...

Here, There, Elsewhere does not live up to being nearly as good as was Blue Highways. This book is a collection of pieces he has written but not published previously in book form so it is not one continuous story. Some pieces were of greater interest to me than others and I skipped over some sections. Yet I read one section aloud to my husband.
