The city of Amsterdam owes its existence to the river Amstel. This route starts at Amsterdam Central Station and from there follows the Amstel to Oudekerk aan den Amstel. Rembrandt regularly walked this route to paint the Amstel and the Riekermolen. From the station you walk over the Damrak, the Dam and the Rokin along De Munt where the Amstel begins. From here you follow the river and pass ...

He rode across North America, has climbed some of the highest peaks in the United Sates, Canada, Ecuador, and the Alps. In 2018, he travelled across Quebec from Montreal to Kuujjuaq by a combination of bicycle and canoe, and in 2020 completed the first crossing of La Route Blanche by fatbike. His first book will be published during the winter 2021.

La Route Blanche: Pedalling into the Unknown—BIKEPACKING.com

Directed by Georges Lautner. With Mimsy Farmer, Robert Walker Jr., Ed Begley, Bruce Pecheur. Jonas (Walker Jr) is on the road to Salina. He stops at a gas station/restaurant and its owner, Mara (Hayworth), is struck by his resemblance to her dead son, Rocky (Porel). He decides to stay on and meets Mara's friend Warren (Begley) and Rocky's seductive sister Billie (Famer), but dark facts are to ...

Hello-Hoping to get a little information on the best mode of travel from Amsterdam to visit the la Trappe Monastery for a tasting and lunch. There will be 3 of us so I'm trying to figure out if purchasing 3 tickets for public transport (if there is public transport to the monastery) would be close to the same as renting a car for the day and time wise, how long is the drive vs taking public ...
