Race | Psychology Today

A taxonomy of racial microaggressions in everyday life was created through a review of the social psychological literature on aversive racism, from formulations regarding the manifestation and impact of everyday personal narratives of counselors (both White and those of color) on their racial/cultural awakening.

Microaggressions seem to appear in three forms: microassault, microinsult,
