Cooney called Miss Rumphius (1982) and Island Boy (1988) her "hymns to Maine." Of the more than 100 books she wrote and illustrated, she said those two, along with Hattie and the Wild Waves (1990), "are as near as I ever will come to an autobiography." Her love for Maine was lifelong, though she didn't move here until she was 64.
