Richard Twiss. One Church, Many Tribes: Following Jesus the Way God Made You. Ventura, California: Regal Books, 2000. See here to buy the book. I wrote about Richard Twiss' posthumous 2015 book, Rescuing the Gospel from the Cowboys, in my post here. Richard Twiss was a Native American evangelical who advocated contextualization: Native Americans worshipping Jesus according to Native American rituals, such as pow-wows, sweat lodges, dances, and drums.
