Your Performance Review must be honest if it is to achieve two things; 1) a critical look at your performance, both good and bad, to identify gaps in your skills, knowledge and capabilities; and 2) it must identify genuine areas for improvement, investments and specific interventions, allied with goals and objectives that could be set to close these gaps.

How To Answer Performance Review Questions | Like a Pro ...

Good Answer: Naturally, anything that the employee says that you weren't aware of is a good answer. Ideally they respond in terms of the impact and results of your management. Bad Answer: Bad might not be the right word, but it's not helpful if the employee is cagey and doesn't respond honestly. Therefore, it's best if you can build trust with them so they'll feel safe to share any criticism with you.
