responsibility. Don't make excuses. Ask yourself "How else can I get this done?"

6) Do Something...Do

Anything: Find one thing and get start immediately in the direction you seek. Find some allies and start to meet and talk about improvements. Don't talk about how other people need to step up. Focus on what you can do. Talk about the future - it is often a powerful precursor to change.

Review - Stepping Up: How Taking Responsibility Changes ...

Step Up and Step Out: Taking Personal Responsibility. The focus of the two opposite emotions of sadness and joy is ourselves. There are four pairs of core attitudes about ourselves: 1) feel worthy vs unworthy, 2) self-reliant vs depends on others for approval, 3) judge ourselves positively vs negatively, and 4) take personal responsibility vs passivity.
