It was a time when self-service shopping was a novelty, frozen foods a wonder, and detergents like Tide, Daz and Omo were the latest whirl for the washing machine.

I bought this scrapbook following my interest in the 1950s after watching 'Call the Midwife'. I really love this book because it brings out the best of the '50s. I really enjoy looking at books which have mostly pictures in (this scrapbook has little text) so it doesn't contain many facts but it gives you a wonderful insight into '50s life through packaging '50s people would have seen every day.
