The American Dream In Fifties

In the 1950's, the "American dream" was originated around the idea that anyone could have the opportunity to achieve more success than in their countries of origin; for others, it was the opportunity to become an individual without the constraints imposed by class, race, and ethnicity. In the 1950's, the foundation of the American dream was masked by the illusion of perfect white "cookie-cutter" families living in suburbia.
