Pentecost and power Seven weeks after Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection, His disciples waited expectantly for the power He promised. On the Day of Pentecost they were all together celebrating God's holy day, when God began to demonstrate that power. God used physical miracles to draw attention to a much greater spiritual miracle.

The Power of Pentecost - Life, Hope & Truth

Third, Pentecost is the day when gender walls seem to come down. Peter said Pentecost is the fulfillment of the prophecy of Joel who said,

"God will pour out His Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy...Even upon the menservants and maidservants in those days will I pour out My Spirit" (Joel 2:28). Pentecost is the day when God tears down all the walls of division in the world and the church.

Think about how this power transformed the first-century believers. Prior to Pentecost, Simon Peter couldn't stand up for his faith when strangers asked him if he was a follower of Jesus. After the power of the Holy Spirit was poured out on Pentecost, Peter stood up and boldly preached the gospel, resulting in 3,000 people being saved.

The Explosive Power of Pentecost? - Pentecost

The Christian traditions surrounding Pentecost originate in Acts 2, where the gathered disciples experience the presence and power of God's Holy Spirit. The account speaks of a sound "like the howling of a fierce wind" and something like "individual flames of fire alighting on each one of them" (verses 2-3, CEB).

Ministry Matters™ | The power of Pentecost

The power of Pentecost, God's glory manifest in us and through us, is still our birthright, through the work Jesus finished on the cross. God, in all His splendor, can and does move into the natural realm of human existence where He can actually be experienced by people. Take hold of your inheritance today!

Christ for all Nations - The Power of Pentecost

There is a world full of people who need to hear and see the message of the Gospel. Some are right next to us and some are far away and hard to reach. The purpose of Pentecost is to fill believers with the Holy Spirit so we can testify—in effective power by what we say and how we live to people everywhere—the wonderful truth of our glorious Lord.

Pentecost and the Power of the Holy Spirit | National ...

Pentecost In the New Testament - , the Holy Spirit comes to the apostles to fulfill Jesus's words that they would receive power from the Holy Spirit to glorify God's name to all nations. As a result, we, the church and body of Christ, are called to bear witness to all nations through the power of the Holy Spirit to glorify the name of God!

The Power of Pentecost - Faithlife Sermons

Pentecostalism or Classical Pentecostalism is a Protestant Christian movement that emphasises direct personal experience of God through baptism with the Holy Spirit. The term Pentecostal is derived from Pentecost, an event that commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the followers of Jesus Christ, and the speaking in "foreign" tongues as described in the second chapter of the Acts of ...

Pentecostalism - Wikipedia

The result of Pentecost is that followers of Jesus have the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit available to them just as these Believers received that day. Also, there were people from many nations in Jerusalem that day.

The Power of Pentecost - Pentecost is an event which ...

The Power Of Pentecost Is The Power To Witness. When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them.

THE POWER OF PENTECOST And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; Pentecost not only changed the church world, but the secular world as well. Within thirty-two years after Pentecost,...

The Power of PENTECOST - Faithlife Sermons

Pentecost: A New Power Instead, Luke points us to a prophecy from the Old Testament book of Joel predicting that one day the Spirit of God would pour out on all peoples. The Pentecost of Acts 2 fulfilled that. One reason that the Gospel is 'good news' is that it provides power to live life differently - better.

The Precision and Power of Pentecost - Consider the Bible

Pentecost is all about the Spirit of the Living God in your life so you are infused by the same resurrection power that raised Jesus from the dead. That's what Pentecost is all about. If you're somebody who doesn't want to live a powerless life, you need a Pentecost harvest. Break up the fallow ground in your life or ministry.
