The Strangers on Montagu Street by Karen White combines historical mystery with romance, drama, and Southern hospitality, like all of the other books in the series, reuniting readers with Jack Treholm — famous author — and Melanie Middleton — real estate agent for historic Charleston homes and resident, if reluctant, ghost whisperer. Melanie can be whiny and she can grate on readers nerves with her penchant for denying her feelings for Jack and her rocky relationship with her parents.

The Strangers on Montagu Street by Karen White

Although a bit slow in parts, The Strangers on Montagu Street is a terrific read. The old characters are more fully realized and are beginning to feel like old friends. Added to our old cast of characters are new spirits visiting Mellie and her mom, Ginnette, in hopes that our duo (and friends) can resolve whatever is keeping the spirits earthbound.
