The Deepest Night by Shana Abé is the second in The Sweetest Dark trilogy, so there may be spoilers for the first book! Ive been really loving this series so far, and The Deepest Night did not disappoint. The emphasis was more on the war than the magic, since we have already found out a lot about the dragons and stars at this point. ...

The period also has a gritty & aspect that is hard to deny. Shana looks forward to writing many more stories of romance in the future and hopes to keep entertaining her dedicated fans through her stories for as long as she can. The Sweetest Dark series written by author Shana Abe is comprised of a total of 3 books released between 2012 and 2017.

Shana Abe - Book Series In Order

The Sweetest Dark was one of the first books I read after a reading slump and it helped get me out of that slump. That's a big point in its favor. I appreciated that it had a mix of POVs – in addition to Lora's first person POV, we get the two boys' POVs in 3rd person, as well as letters written many decades earlier by a mysterious (or perhaps not so mysterious) woman named Rue.
