Synchronous Fireflies – What Time Do They Come Out The fireflies are at their peak around 10:00-11:30 pm. It doesn ' t get super dark (you want it to be like pitch black) until around 9:00 pm; however, I would encourage getting to where you want to sit while it is still light out because when it ' s dark, it is very dark.

Today, we're very pleased to premiere the music video for "Fireflies." Like the vid accompanying "Alabama," released earlier this year, it features a Jessica Breanne dance routine.

Jessica Breanne Looks for the Way Out in "Fireflies"
For a beetle, fireflies live long and full lives—around two years—though most of it is spent underground, gloriously eating and sleeping to their heart ' s content. When we see these beacons flashing their lights, they usually have only one or two weeks left to live.
