Oscar®-winning filmmaker Davis Guggenheim (An Inconvenient Truth) reminds us that education "statistics" have names: Anthony, Francisco, Bianca, Daisy, and Emily, whose stories make up the engrossing foundation of Waiting for "Superman". As he follows a handful of promising kids through a system that inhibits, rather than encourages, academic growth, Guggenheim undertakes an exhaustive review of public education, surveying "drop-out factories" and "academic sinkholes ...

Waiting for Superman is yet another book written about our failing schools. Although this book was published in 2010, there has been no real change with the problems in our educational system. The United States spends the more money per capita for education than any other country in the world, yet outcomes continue to fail.
